

Em A D
It's not for lack of trying why things fall
Em
apart
Em A D
Countless propositions made in vain
Em A D Em
Prospect of a remedy offers no light
Em A D
Giving it all up with no real gain

Em A
Just patch up the holes so loose
D Em
And tie things up enough to undo

Em A D
And it takes one bad day
Em A D
For everything to go awry
Em A D
So I reckon we were never meant to be
Em A D
Like we're asymptotic, you and I

Em A
We try our best to meet in the middle
D Em
But failure seems inevitable
Em A
Like we're getting, getting closer
D Em
But we're really going nowhere, and we'll

Em A D Em A D
Never reach where we're s'posed to be

Em A D
And it takes one bad day
Em A D
For everything to go awry
Em A D
So I reckon we were meant to be apart
Em A D
And it's written in the stars

Em
Like we're asymptotic
A
Two south pole magnets
Weren't made to connect
D Em
You and I

Are asymptotic
Em
(We'll never meet)
Two south pole magnets
(We'll never see eye to eye)
Weren't made to connect
D
You and I

Em A
Just patch up the holes so loose
D Em
And tie things up enough to undo
Em A
Heaven knows we try, but it's no use
D Em
No, it's no use

Em A D
Cuz it takes one bad day
Em A D
For everything to go awry
Em A D
So I reckon we were meant to be apart
Em A D
And it's written in the stars

Em A D
Like we're asymptotic
Em A D
You and I
Em A D Em
Are asymptotic
Em A
Ohhhhhh
