

2, 3

I saw it all, your skin on her skin I heard her calls as you were going in But then I thought maybe you'll confess your sin
I was distraught, you let your demons win

I, I don't really think that it is right For you to get a good night's sleep
After your infidelity

I hope you were tossing and turning
I hope you were wide awake
I hope you were tossing and turning
I hope that your conscience aches
I hope you were tossing and turning it all over in your mind
And when you're done tossing and turning I hope that you decide
To make things right (I saw it all, uh)
I hope we can talk this over
I guess that all I want is closure
And then I can push it out my mind
And then we can push it all aside

I want to erase it from my mind
But I won't be satisfied til you say It was all a big mistake

I hope you were tossing and turning
I hope you were wide awake
I hope you were tossing and turning
I hope that your conscience aches
over in your mind
And when you're done tossing and turning I hope that you decide
That you would take it all back if you could go back in time

I hope you were tossing and turning
The way I was tossing and turning and tossing and turning Tossing and turning and tossing and turning
