

I was the kid who believed

I would turn into a tree

If I ate a melon seed

And she's literally

The opposite of me

Everybody's dream

And her name's Stephanie

Literally

G D A (2x)

I'm in love, but you don't care for me

I'm in love, but you love Stephanie

With her waist-long hair

And her hazel eyes

It is no surprise

That you're in love with Stephanie

I have crawled so she can run

Where she ends, I've just begun

Puts a spell on everyone

I'm the Moon, she is the Sun

(She is the Sun)

I'm a damsel in distress

She's a bona fide princess

She is perfect, I'm a mess

But I digress

I would be more shocked if you didn't love her than I am right now

Bet her parents are so proud

She woke up like this, how?

I'm in love, but you don't care for me

I'm in love, but you love Stephanie

With her waist-long hair

And her hazel eyes

It is no surprise

That you're in love with Stephanie

Stephanie

G D
So lemme get this straight

Some would say that I am in love with

Stephanie

Or that I'm jealous of her

And I'm not

She's just annoyingly, frustratingly, undeniably hot

G D A
I'm in love, but you don't care for me

G D A
I'm in love, but you love Stephanie

G D A
No, I'm not jealous of Stephanie

G D A
I just wish that you were in love with me
